TO THE READER

It is forbidden to pray to false gods, or to any force, or physical object of the world, but rather, only to the Creator of Heaven and Earth, the God of Israel. Anything else is likely to be idolatry, in violation of the prohibition of idol worshipping.

ABRIDGED PRAYERS FOR THE NATIONS

Someone who does not feel an inner urge to pray, or someone who is short in time, can recite the following abridged prayers with an light heart and clear conscience, and his prayer will find favor before He who hears the prayers of all hearts. These foundations of prayer for all peoples are based on an arrangement recommended by Rabbi Yoel Schwartz of Jerusalem, a member of the New Sanhedrin.

ABRIDGED PRAYER FOR WEEKDAYS

In the Morning, upon Arising:

I give thanks to You, everlasting King, who has compassionately restored my soul within me; great is Your faithfulness. And I also thank You for providing man with his needs, and for granting him wisdom, so that he can know Your greatness, and know how to carry out his mission in life.

AMIDAH PRAYER

The Amidah prayer is known as the “Standing Prayer,” or the “Shemona Essrei” in Hebrew. Three times of every day have been set for its recital: in the early hours of the morning; afternoon, and evening. Bnei Noah may recite it all three times, twice, once, or not at all. It is possible to replace it with any other prayer which includes, in concise form, the following three themes, in this order: praise to the Creator, requests, thanksgiving.

To begin the prayer, one should make three steps forward and keep one’s legs together in order to resemble an angel standing in prayer. Remove from the heart all worries and annoying thoughts in order to concentrate on the prayer. Keep the eyes closed, or else focused on the prayer book. Until the end of the Amidah, one should not to leave his place, or interrupt the prayer by speaking, even about holy matters, or stop the prayer in the middle. The prayer is said in a low whisper in order not to disturb anybody else praying nearby.

My Master, open my lips and my mouth will declare Your praise.

PATRIARCHS – AVRAHAM, YITZHAK, AND YAAKOV

I will praise and extol You, God of the Universe, Creator of heaven and earth, God of Avraham, God of Yitzhak, God of Yaakov, the great, mighty, and awesome God, the supreme God, who bestows loving-kindness, Master of Everything, who remembers the saintly deeds of the Patriarchs and brings a redeemer to their children’s children, for His Name’s sake, with love.

O King, Supporter, Savior, and Shield: praised be Your Name, the Shield of Avraham.

THANKSGIVING

We thank You, for You are Hashem, our God, and God of our fathers, forever and ever; our Rock, the Rock of our lives. You are the Shield of our salvation from generation to generation. We thank you and praise You for our lives which are in Your charge, and for our souls which are entrusted to You; and for Your miracles which are with us daily; and for Your constant wonders and favors, in the evening, morning, and afternoon. Beneficent One, whose compassion never ceases; Merciful One, whose kindness never ends, we always put our hope in You.

For all of these things, may Your Name be eternally blessed and exalted, our King. And all life will acknowledge You, Sela.

And Your great Name will be extolled and blessed in truth forever, for it is good, O God of our salvation and aid, the God of goodness, Selah.

May Your Name be praised, for Your Name is the Beneficent One, and it is pleasant to give You thanks.
